

Maṅgala Mantras

svastiprajābhyaḥ paripālayantām nyāyena mārgeṇa mahīm mahīśāḥ | gobrāhmaṇebhyaḥ śubham astu nityam
lokāḥ samastāḥ sukhino bhavantu ||

May the leaders of this earth protect the welfare of all generations by keeping to the path of virtue.
May the religious, and all peoples be forever blessed. May the whole of all the worlds be happy.

sarveṣām svastir bhavatu
sarveṣām śāntir bhavatu |
sarveṣām pūrṇam bhavatu
sarveṣām maṅgalaṁ bhavatu ||

May everything be fortunate; May everything be full of peace; May everything be whole; May everything be auspicious.

kāle varṣatu parjanyaḥ
pṛthivī sasya śālinī |
deśo 'yam kṣobha-rahitaḥ
brāhmaṇāḥ santu nirbhyāḥ ||

May the rains fall on time; may the earth yield her produce in abundance; may this country be free from turmoil; and may the righteous be free from fears.

sarve bhavantu sukhinaḥ
sarve santu nirāmayāḥ |
sarve bhadrāṇi paśyantu
mā kaścid duḥkha-bhāg-bhavet ||

om śāntiḥ śāntiḥ śāntiḥ ||

May everything become happy; May everything be free from illness; May everyone see that which is True & Auspicious; Indeed there is no one who wants to experience suffering!

Om peace, peace, peace...

aputrāḥ putriṇaḥ santu
putriṇaḥ santu pautriṇaḥ |
adhanāḥ sadhanāḥ santu
GURUJI: jīvantu śaradām śatam ||
KPJAYI: sarve santu nirāmayāḥ ||

Whether you have children or no children, whether your children have children or not, whether you have wealth or not, [for the sake of spiritual growth], may you be blessed to live one hundred years.